

FASB TO HOST CREDIT LOSSES ROUNDTABLE

Monday,
January 28, 2019

Public Roundtable Meeting on Credit Losses

FASB Offices

401 Merritt 7
Norwalk, CT 06856

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. EST

The FASB will host a public roundtable meeting to gather additional views on the credit losses standard and to discuss the current expected credit losses (CECL) model.

Roundtable participants will include representatives of banks of various sizes, regulators, and other stakeholders. Agenda topics will include the FASB staff's research on credit losses agenda requests, including a proposal submitted by a group of banks to consider an alternative to the income statement impact of the current expected CECL model. The discussion also will include the FASB's consideration of charge-offs and recoveries as a component of the vintage disclosures and other transition issues.

Nonparticipating observers interested in attending the meeting in person must register in advance. (Seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis.)

The meeting will be audio webcast and archived on the FASB website for 90 days following the meeting.

Unless otherwise announced, all meetings are held in the Board room at the FASB offices and are video or audio webcast on the FASB website. Because meetings may change, please check the website for the most up to date information before finalizing plans. For a more complete listing of public meetings, including tentatively scheduled meetings, please view the Notice of Open Meetings on the FASB website.
