The objective of this ITC and the related 2021 Agenda Consultation process is to ensure that the FASB continues to allocate its finite resources to standard-setting activities that fulfill its primary mission of improving financial accounting and reporting standards and that are of the highest priority to its stakeholders. Therefore, feedback on the prioritization of projects on the FASB’s technical agenda (see Appendix A) would be helpful. Do you have any feedback on the FASB’s technical agenda, including the following:	Digital assets should be measured at their fair value at the end of each reporting period to the extent that such fair value is “readily determinable”, with unrealized gains and losses reported in an entity’s income statement as “other income (loss)”.	Completed

a. Which projects on the FASB’s agenda should the Board prioritize completing? Please explain. b. Which projects, if any, should the Board deprioritize or consider removing from the agenda? Please explain. c. Which projects, if any, need to be redefined to improve the objective and/or scope? Please explain.
Greater disaggregation and granularity of the types of financial reporting information described in Chapter 1 have been identified as decision useful to investors. The following insights would be helpful to the FASB when considering this area: a. Investors and other financial statement users— Which, if any, of the areas described in Chapter 1 should be a top priority for the FASB to consider requiring greater disaggregation—on the income statement, the statement of cash	Digital assets should be measured at their fair value at the end of each reporting period to the extent that such fair value is “readily determinable”, with unrealized gains and losses reported in an entity’s income statement as “other income (loss)”.	Completed

flows, or the notes to financial statements? Would this information be most useful in the financial statements or in the notes to financial statements? How would this information be used to analyze a company and make capital allocation decisions? b. Preparers—What requests or questions does your company receive from analysts on the areas described within Chapter 1? Please explain any requests or questions your company has received.
Investors and other financial statement users—What cash flow information, if any, required for your analysis is missing in a statement of cash flows prepared using the indirect method? How would this information influence your decisions and behavior? Please explain.	Digital assets should be measured at their fair value at the end of each reporting period to the extent that such fair value is “readily determinable”, with unrealized gains and losses reported in an entity’s income statement as “other income (loss)”.	Completed

What challenges, if any, are there in applying the guidance on the definition of a derivative and the related derivative scope exceptions in Subtopic 815-10? Please explain the challenges and whether and how they could be addressed through standard setting.	Digital assets should be measured at their fair value at the end of each reporting period to the extent that such fair value is “readily determinable”, with unrealized gains and losses reported in an entity’s income statement as “other income (loss)”.	Completed
Investors—How significant are holdings in digital assets, such as crypto assets, in the companies you analyze? What type of financial reporting information about holdings in digital assets do you use in your analysis of a company? How does that information influence your decisions and behaviors? If there is other financial reporting information about digital assets that would be decision useful, what is that information and why is it decision useful?	Digital assets should be measured at their fair value at the end of each reporting period to the extent that such fair value is “readily determinable”, with unrealized gains and losses reported in an entity’s income statement as “other income (loss)”.	Completed

What challenges, if any, exist in applying the capitalization thresholds in Subtopics 350-40 and 985-20? What improvements, if any, could be made to the software capitalization guidance to overcome those challenges? Should there continue to be a capitalization threshold when accounting for software depending on whether it is for internal use or whether it is to be sold, leased, or otherwise marketed?
